WHEELING, WEST VA., SATURDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 11, 1876.

At 3 a, M. we] have simply to make the usual announcement of no result arrived at by the election returns. We refer our readers to the news as printed for material for opinions.

P. S.-Our closing advices from New York are as follows:

The Herald considers the election still in doubt.

The Times repeats the assertion that there is no room for further doubt of the colored voters in the State, ninety-nine election of Hayes. The statement is based on specials from Florida. South Carolina and Louisiana, 145 members of the next House, with Illinois. New Hampshire elects three members next spring, and the Republicans will, without much doubt, oust the House from that State. Take it all in all, the Democratic rain storm on the 7th is turning out to be a pretty slim

Jority ever given a candidate."

In connection with Mr. Redfield's letter

we trust that our Democratic friends will also read Gov. Kellogg's emphatic statement this morning. He gives the by Redfield, viz: violence, brute force and complete terrorism. If Louisiana which it has been done, and this the Reshow to the leading men of both parties

The Great Doubt.

The present is not the first time the public mind has been kept in suspense ser the result of a Presidential election Thecanvass of 1844, between Henry Clay and James K. Polk, is still remembered by many of our readers for the exciting brabout three weeks after the 7th of November of that year. This was owing to the very close vote in the State Sew York, and to the slow coach facilites in those days for conveying the iews. At one time the Democratic papers in New York city conceded the State to the Whigs, which would have elected Mr. Clay. Had it not ben for the 15,812 votes that were given James G. Birney, the Liberty candidate, Cay would, in all probability, have been President of the United States. The vote of that year stood Polk 237,588, Clay 232,-432. There were at that time 275 votes is the Electoral College, and Polk receiv ed 170 to 105 for Clay. New York cast delectoral votes (one more than she tasts now) and these transferred from Polk to Clay would have given the latter ill votes and reduced the former to 134 When it was finally known that Polk gia in New York that determined the reult) the Whigs gave way to great exhi bitions of feeling throughout the country, for Mr. Clay was the idol of his party as no man ever was before or since in this

But great as was the excitement i 1844, it was not to be compared to what ve have seen in the remarkable canvass at closed, and to the scenes that have date transpired. The Republican party has been in power for fifteen years - an stasually long time-and during that due the greatest war in history has octate the greatest war in history has octate. The two political parties of the watern Union Telegraph Company: The New Orleans Democrats with recursive coupling of the Watern Union Telegraph Company: The New Orleans Democrats with recursive the indestructibility of the Union and the perpetuity of the Federal Union Telegraph Company: The New Orleans Democrats with return from all but six parishes before the maining parishes gave a Democrat maining parishes (Signed) C. The two parties have since the "ar antagonized each other on questions udly less momentous than the war itell, viz. the amendments to the Constitution and the reconstruction of the South Hence the deep feeling that has custions and suspicions begin to find 'en over the wires. Gov. Kellogg, of otisians, defends himself in our dis- gesticks this morning from reflections of basert. There is also a call for lead-That to go to New Orleans and ascerand report upon the facts of a situation, and by their presence ed noral pressure prevent even the ap-Public of fraud. The President has a likely very explicit instructions this said very explicit instructions this said to the General of the army with surprise the following statement:

"Dispatches were exchanged last night and reported returns from 51 parishes by Kellogg and Chamberlain, and also including Orleans give a Democratic

Chamberlain's correspondence amount ed to this: "I will carry South Carolina for Hayes, if you carry Louisiana."

"The Governors of Louisiana and South Carolina, when it was thought that the election of Tilden depended on these States, entered into a mutual agreement to return their States for Hayes by any means."

bound to be great exchange the votes for the result in case Louisiana votes for Hayes. The Democrats have made up their minds in advance that that State has gone for Tilden, and they will resist any other verdict as long as there is any votes whether the verdict as long as there is any means."

The above contains a grave charge and seems to have been made with deliberation. It is every word untrue. I have sent no dispatch to Gov. Chamberlain, or to Senator Conover. I have received no dispatches from them. I have nather written nor telegraphed to seems to have been made with deliberation. It is every word untrue. I have sent no dispatch to Gov. Chamberlain, or to Senator Conover. I have received majority variously stated from 1,000 to 1,200 or 2,000. Diligent inquiry failed no dispatches from them. I have neither written nor telegraphed to the gentleman named, nor to any other person in South Carolina nor Florida during the past six months, nor have I received either letter or telegram from them or from any one else in these States bearing on the election. Much more is asid in the same issue of the Picayane as regards myself and the Returning Board. I do not appoint the members of that Board. I am not a member of the Returning Board. I do not appoint the members of that Board. I am not responsible to them for my action, nor are they to me, except that my name has been placed on the Republican ticket as a Presidential Elector. I am not a candidate for sny office at this election. I have endeavored to be fair and just in the discharge of my official duties, and I think the record will show that I have been so. I do claim the right, however, as an American citizen, to express my opinion. I have said, and I now repeat that the majorities will be a support to the National Senator Conover had telegraphed to that the shape of a specific statement that person the story; but it was to-night revived in the shape of a specific statement that effect to the National Republican Committee in New York city. (August alspatch) The present doubt that overhangs the election in Louisiana, South Carolina and Florida, like a dark pall, is not likely to be dispelled to-day. It may take several days yet to give us the facts. Meanwhile the existing intense and unhealthy excitement will continue to hold sway. It so completely absorbs public attention now that the business of the country is brought almost to a stand still. The crowds that are seen in this city thronging the newspaper offices, and occupying the street corners, are simply representative of what is the condition of the public mind all over the land. We are in receipt at this office every hour in the day of telegrams asking us for the latest news. The people are wonderfully excited. They are all eagerness, hope and anxiety in regard to the result. For the sake of the weighty interests involved we devoutly hope that the result.

FLORIDA.

Mr. C. D. Brigham, formerly editor of the Pittsburgh Commercial, now residing at Jacksonville, Fla., telegraphs to the Cincinnati Commercial of yesterday that "Florida is sure for Hayes by 2,000."

The editor of the Cincinnati Commercial says that he attaches more importance to this dispatch than to anything he has seen from the State, and comments on it as follows:

Mr. Brigham is an old acequaintance. He was a few years ago the editor of the clive of the composed of conservative men who have the confidence of the courty. He thought that such an arrangemen who have the confidence of the coun-try. He thought that such an arrange-ment would be able to secure a fair count of the vote and satisfy the whole people, averting a most dangerous issue and perhaps an outburst of violence.

Transportation has been ordered for troops to pass through this city to-night for Florida.

The excitement here to-day over the aspect of the Presidential election is intense; at no time since the day of the election has there been anything to approximate. Deep feeling is manifested this afternoon; the Democrats claim that Tilden has been honestly elected, and if there is to be any trouble over the matter the people of the North must decide the question. The Republicans generally sustain the action of the President.

The Democratic State Committee still assert their perfect confidence in Tilden's election. The Republican Committee, a majority of whom have heretofore had doubts as to the result, are now perfectly confident of Hayes' election, and have so notified their correspondents. I understand that Governor Hayes himself no longer doubts his election and is confident that an honest canvass of the votes in the States that have been set down as doubtful will prove this fact to the perfect atsisfaction of all fair minded men, and a squad of earnest and confident Democratis have been gravitating between the Democrats have been gravitating between the Dehoccratic headquarters and Capital Square during the evening waking the echoes with their shouts, while another large crowd in front of the Republican headquarters are equally confident of Hayes' election.

Augusta, GA., November 10.

A dispatch from Lake City at 11:30

P. M. says the corrected returns of twentyeight counties place the Democratic majority at 700. Hillsboro county, according to information from reliable sources, gives 614 Democratic majority, which,
with the estimated returns for the remaining ten counties, would give the State to the Democrate by over 1,500 majority.

Advices to-night from reliable sources, say that Tilden, Drew, for Congress, and a Democratic Legislature, are elected in Florida. The 8 counties of Duval, Alachau, Gadsden, Jefferson, Leon, Madison, and Mason give an aggregate Republican majority of 0,534. Returns from 13 counties, viz: Baker, Bradford, Clay, Columbia, Hamilton, Jackson, Levy, Monroe, Orange, Park, Putnam, St. Johns and Pawnee, give an aggregate Democratic majority of 3,620. The remaining eighteen counties in 1574 gave a Democratic majority aggregating 3,205. This, without any increase, would give a total Democratic inker by a majority of 6,826, and elect the Democratic ticket by a majority of 292. The 18 counties to hear from, however, will probably increase the majority of 1874 by from 1,200 to to 1,500 votes, and the entire ticket will be elected by a majority ranging from 1,000 to 1,500.

Another dispatch says that both parties still claim the State, Great excitement prevails. Drew is certainly elected by at least 1,200. SAYANNAH, GA., Nov. 10.

[A statement from Gov. Kellogg—He is glad the Northern men are coming.] NEW OBLEARS, Nov. 10,-Midnight. Gov. Kellogg furnishes the following statement to the Associated Press, re-garding the election: Very few official returns have been received outside of the city, by the Secretary of State, the proper custodian. Unofficial statements have been received and published here of 15 Republican and 3 Democratic parishes. Besides the city, 28 out of 57 parishes may be called tolerably reliable. The other parishes are estimated by each side. The State is claimed according to each estigrate, by both sides. The Democrats only claim the State by estimating the Repub-lican parishes of East and West Feliciana, East Baton Rouge, Monroe, House and Ouachiea, as having given them as they now claim, nearly 4,000 majority. No one disputes that these by armed bands of white leaguers before and on the day of the election. These parishes have always been largely Republican. The registration in these parishes is, white 3,698, black 8,709; they gave 3,000 majority in 1872, by the re-turns of the fusion Democratic Board, and they gave the Republican candidate 3,900 majority in 1874, as conceded by the Democratic State Committee. In the Democratic State Committee. In Onachita a Deputy U. S. Marshal was killed on election day, the polls taken possession of and run by the white leaguers in East Feliciana. Not a single Republican vote was allowed to be polled—the Republicans were not allowed. run a ticket. This parish is next to the Mississippi line, and has been turbulent, more or less, since the Democrats got possession of Mississippi. In this parish I got over 900 majority in 1872, and in 1874 the Republicans carried the parish by more than 1,000 majority. The vote claimed by the Democrats in these parishes was procured by intimidation, violence and assassination, and the reservant of the processing the parishes was procured by intimidation, violence and assassination, and the reservant of the process of violence and assassination, and the proof of this is overwhelming and perfectly conclusive. Notwithstanding the claimed vote of these parishes, we confidently be-lieve we have carried the State. The Democrats claimed to have carried the State by about 4,000 in 1874, not count State by about 4,000 in 1874, not counting Carroll parish, which gave us over 1,300 majority, but where they always alleged frauds and refused to concede but about 900 of this majority to us. We have gained in the city alone 2,400 votes over the vote of 1874, which they con-cede. They further admit that we have carried the parishes of Iberia, St. Martin, Assumption, Rapides, Caddo, Webster and La Fourche, already heard from, which they carried in 1874. They admit we have increased our majorities in Bossier, Madison, Texas Concordia Natchitoches, 'Plaquemine and St Charles. Of course none of these are official. There are only about twenty parishes accessible by rail and telegraph, and the official vote of several of the remote parishes can't be had for five or six days. The result will be close, counting the vote in the Bull-nosed parishes, as the Democrats claim it. Not counting these purishes, while the Republicans will be deprived of a legitimate majority of nearly 4,000, in no contingency can the Democrats have carried the State. It will not be denied that with scarce ly an exception in all the heretofore Republican parishes, except the five Bull-nosed parishes, the Republicans have gained over their majority of 1874 Neither can it be claimed that the colore people voted the Republican ticket with more unamimity than ever before. When the results of this election are investi-Sated in detail, and I am sure that in the impending exigency they will be (the Re-publicans of Louisians, their trials, their difficulties, and the injustice they have so long labored under, will be better up so long issored and appreciated by the people derstood and appreciated by the people of the North. CHARLESTON, November 10.—This county gives the Republicans 6,214 majority. Nearly all the counties heard from, officially or unofficially, give Hampton, Democrat, for Governor, 1,213 majority. The Democratic Presidential ticket is not cut as much as it was at first supposed, and it is not believed that Tilden will fall more than 4,00 or 5,00 behind Hampton. It does not appear possible for the Republicans to overcome the figures above given from the counties not officially heard from.

COLUMBIA, S. C., 1:42 P. M.
South Carolina is safe for the Republicans, but the Democrats claim the State on the basis of heavy reported majorities in three or four counties where the Republicans have heretofore had large majorities. If a Democratic majority appears on the face of the returns, they are fraudulent and a result of the grossest terrorism. But conceding the Democrats all they claim in the counties not definitely heard from, and giving the Republicans only what we know we have, the result is a small majority for the Republicans. The final honest official result, cannot in our best judgement fall below 8,000 Republican majority.

The Tribune of to-morrow will con tain the following statement: A meeting of prominent citizens was held to-day at the Fifth Avenue Hotel at the invitation of Secretary Chandler. It is understood that a proposition was fully discussed and finally unanimously approved to the effect that the National Republican Committee be advised to in-vite the Democrat National Committee to unite with it in sending to Louisiana a number of gentlemen representing both parties, of a National reputation and enjoying the confidence of the whole country, who should look into the details of the late election, witness the action of the Board of Canvassers, and report whether the result in-dicated the free and fair vote of the State. Dispatches were received from Governor Kellogg inviting such scrutiny, and all the Republicans present used the strong-est expressions with reference to the imperative necessity that the count should be absolutely honest, no matter who might be elected. Secretary Chandler and Senator Ed-munds were compelled to leave last night for Washington, but it is understood that the Committee is likely to take prompt COLUMBUS, November 10.—General Wikoff, Chairman of the Republican State Committee, furnishes the following information: The 69 counties heard from up to noon to-day show a Republican loss of 162 on Barnes' majority at the October election. The indications are that Hayes' majority will be about 0,000.

COLUMBUS, November 10.—The Republican State Committee now have semi-official returns from 86 out of the 88 counties of Ohio, which show a net Republican gain of 623 over Barnes' majority in October, 1876, which was 6,636. If the two counties still out should cast exactly the same vote they did in October, Hayes' majority will be 7,259.

The excitement over the election news continues unabated, and the streets have been filled all day with excited crowds much more irritable and less generous than heretofore. Several street fights occurred. The returns have been of such a varied character, and men have been kept waiting so long between hope and fear that the more ignorant of street visitors are growing petulant and less inclined to bear the chaffing of their political opponents.
